Press Release for Country Ham Festival- August 19, 2008

The 5th Annual John Maher Builders Spring Hill Country Ham Festival Breakfast

Sept. 10th at 7:30am.

August 19, 2008 – Spring Hill, TN. Come Early and Come Hungry! Everyone is welcome! The 2008 John Maher Builders Spring Hill Country Ham Festival Breakfast is set for September 10th at 7:30am. Tickets are just $25.00 and all proceeds go to the Spring Hill Country Ham Festival Foundation, Inc.

Celebrate the fifth anniversary of the John Maher Builders Spring Hill Country Ham Festival. The breakfast will include mouth watering ham from Early's Authentic Foods & Gifts. It will also include eggs, biscuits, gravy and all the fixing's. Come and participate in this great fundraiser. It will be held at the Heron Center on the Spring Hill campus of The Tennessee Children's Home.

The Tennessee Children's Home is located at 804 Branham Hughes Blvd. It is committed to serving abused, neglected, abandoned, wayward, or orphaned children. They serve youth and their families in a Christian manner. The festival contributed it's proceeds to this home and others associated with it in the state of Tennessee.

The foundation would like to thank all of it's supporters, John Maher Builders, Williamson Medical Center, Tri-Star Health Systems, The Spring Hill Rotary Club, Maury Regional Hospital, Community South Bank, Early's Authentic Foods & Gifts, and everyone attending the festival.

Sponsorship packages for "The Entertainment Stage" and "Hog Calling" are available. Craft booth space and Kids Zone booth space is still available. Check the website at www.countryhamfest.com for more information.
